I may also collect information on Criminal Convictions to check that you are still eligible to remain as a registered elector, this is necessary for the performance of my public task to compile, publish and maintain the Electoral Registers in accordance with the Representation of The People Act 1983 and associated regulations.

Failure to provide information:

If you do not complete and Invitation to Register (ITR), when required to do so you could face a fine of £80. This fine does not apply to 14 & 15 year olds. If you do not complete a Household Enquiry Form (HEF), if convicted you may be fined £1000. If you knowingly supply false information on either a HEF or and ITR, if convicted, you may be imprisoned for up to six months and /or fined up to £5000.

Who do I share your information with?

To verify your identity, the data you provide will be processed by the Individual Electoral Registration Digital Service managed by the Cabinet Office. As part of this process your data will be shared with the Department of Work and Pensions and the Cabinet Office suppliers that are data processors for the Individual Electoral Registration Digital Service. You can find more information about this here:

<https://www.registertovote.service.gov.uk/register-to-vote/privacy>.

I am legally obliged to safeguard public funds so I am required to verify and check your details internally for fraud prevention. I may share this information with other public bodies for the same purpose. I am also legally obliged to share certain data with other public bodies such as HMRC and will do so where the law requires this. I will also generally comply with requests for specific information from other regulatory and law enforcement bodies where this is necessary and appropriate. Your information is also analysed internally to help us improve our services. This data sharing is in accordance with our Data Protection Policy. It also forms part of our requirements in line with our Records Management Plan approved in terms of the Public Records (Scotland) Act 2011.

In addition to publishing the Electoral Registers I sometimes need to share the personal information with other organisations. Where this is necessary I am required to comply with all aspects of the Data Protection Act 2018. What follows is a description of the types of organisation I may need to share some of the information I process for one or more reasons.

Where necessary or required I may share information with:-

- Other Electoral Registration Officers.
- The Cabinet Office
- Organisations who buy the Open Registers
- Organisations who take part in the National Fraud Initiative
- Other occupants of your address
- Permitted recipients of the full Electoral Registers. The Electoral Commission provide further details on their website. www.electoralcommission.org.uk
- Returning Officer(s) or Counting Officers to enable them to conduct elections and referendums.
- Organisations who process your personal data on my behalf, for example, delivery organisations, mailing houses and contractors or consultants. These organisations are carefully selected and measures are put in place to protect your information
